

Esperanza High School Cheer & Song Invites You to Participate in Our "Cheer For A Cause" Clinic & Performances!

Do you love to Cheer & Dance and want to help support an amazing Foundation?
Want to experience a day in the life of high school cheer & song leader?
Looking to perform at an Aztec varsity football game?

No experience necessary and ages Pre-k to 8th grade are invited to participate.

EHS Cheer & Song is teaming up with The Shauna Ann Stuewe Foundation to help spread awareness of Sudden Cardiac Arrest (SCA). A portion of each participant's clinic registration will be donated to the Stuewe Foundation. Participants will learn the basic skills of Cheer & Song and be introduced to Stunts, Cheers, Jumps and Chants. Participants will learn tumbling, dance, and cheer routines. Clinic taught by the Award Winning Esperanza Cheer & Song Teams!
